The Crocker Art Museum reserves the right to change, withdraw, or modify course of instruction at any time. The Museum also reserves the right to withdraw any student whose conduct is deemed detrimental. The Museum's staff or Board of Trustees cannot be held liable for personal injury or loss, theft, or damage of personal property. Signature on the registration form implies understanding of all policies noted in this publication.

Hold Harmless Agreement: In consideration of being permitted to participate in Crocker Art Museum programs, I agree to assume all risks connected therewith. I agree to release and discharge in advance the Crocker Art Museum, its officers, employees, and agents from any and all liability for personal injury. I also assume full responsibility for my or the above child's behavior and agree to pay for all damages to property or person caused by the aforementioned. If a participant's behavior interferes with the program, I understand that expulsion from the program is a possible consequence.

Permission for Medical Treatment: In case of an accident or injury, I authorize a staff member of the Crocker Art Museum to call the 911 emergency number. I give my consent to any medical treatment felt necessary by an attending physician for the physical well being of myself or the child mentioned above. I further understand that the responding medical emergency team will provide emergency treatment as they deem necessary for the safety and protection of myself or child at my expense.

Consent to Photograph, Film, or Tape: I agree to have photographs, films, videotapes or tape recordings taken of me or the minor children registered under my signature while participating in the Crocker Art Museum's programs. I permit these photographs, films, or tapes to be used in publications, promotional materials, web site, and for other purposes by the Crocker Art Museum. If I do not consent, staff leading the program for which I am registered must be informed of and record my non-consent.

I have read and understand all registration requirements and policies, including the Refund Policy, as listed in this booklet.
