

Spring Internship Opportunity

Education: Education Intern

Crocker's Experiential Learning programs seek to provide young people with experiences that are compatible with their intellectual, social and aesthetic maturity. Interns provide valuable support in achieving this goal.

This is an opportunity to gain confidence in public speaking, learn about museum operations, increase organizational skills and much more.

QUALIFICATIONS:

Applicants with studio art experience or drawing skills are qualified.

Applicants who enjoy interacting with the public are qualified.

RESPONSIBILITIES OR DESCRIPTION:

Serve as community liaison, ambassador, and advocate for the Crocker Art Museum

Assist in implementation of studio art classes

Assist Manager of Experiential Learning with all phases of program development, including material preparation, supply purchase or acquisition, program implementation and evaluation

Assist artist instructors with oversight of class or workshop, including set-up, clean up, organization of studios and class preparation

INTERNSHIP PERIOD:

The time period is January 24th – June 30th, 2012

A minimum of 12 hours per week with some weekend hours is expected. Additionally, assistance with girl scout sleepovers is required.

Weekend afternoons and weekday mornings, Tuesday, Wednesday or Thursday

EXPECTATIONS:

The intern is expected to:

Gain interpersonal skills through interaction with museum visitors and staff.

Gain an understanding of museum operations.

Gain an understanding of teaching with objects

Develop excellence in visitor services

Contact: Emma Moore, Manager of Experiential Learning

216 O Street

Sacramento, CA 95814

916-808-1961 or emoore@crockerartmuseum.org

Fax: 916-808-7372